*Memories and Art in the Making:
Celebrating the Community We Share* presented by

the Harbor Springs Area Historical Society

Memories and experiences define our sense of self and our feelings of belonging. It is through these constructs that we, as individuals and communities, tell our stories. One of the ways we communicate our stories and memories to others is through art.

The Harbor Springs Area Historical Society cordially invites all those who have a story to tell to create original, two-dimensional art that celebrates our community. This juried exhibit will take place at the Shay Hexagon House from July 26 to September 30, 2018.

The Historical Society is currently accepting submissions for this exhibit. Each submission must relate specifically to the Harbor Springs area. To apply, please return the items listed below to the Harbor Springs Area Historical Society, PO Box 812, Harbor Springs, MI, 49740, or email info@harborspringshistory.org. For more information please call the society at (231) 526-9771.

Application Requirements:

- Application Form (on reverse)
- Artist Statement (No more than 300 words. This statement should include a short biography and an explanation of the story the artwork tells about our community).

Criteria and Eligibility:

- Open to all individuals over 16 years of age; there is no application fee.
- Artwork must be two-dimensional and no larger than 24" x 30." Art styles that will be accepted include but are not limited to: paintings, sketches, mixed-media, and photographs.
- Cash prizes will be awarded for first, second and third place.
